terms and conditions

Terms and Conditions of Enrolment

This application is for the Degree Transfer and Foundation Studies programs at Bradford College Pty Ltd. Any variation in the terms and conditions set out in this document may only be made by written agreement with the College.

Payment of fees

The student or student's family agrees to pay the annual tuition fee in accordance with the payment terms set out in the College brochure and fee schedules, for the program as stated on the application form. The student or student's family agrees to pay additional charges and fees as set out in the College brochure and in accordance with the payment terms set out in these conditions. Any refund is made in accordance with the Bradford College refund policy.

Late payment – A fee of $100 applies on unpaid accounts 30 days after the date the payment was due.

The College may require the student to purchase educational materials such as textbooks, equipment and personal items such as stationery - payment of which remains the responsibility of the student.

Refund policy

Bradford College's refund policy is available at www.bradford.adelaide.edu.au. All students must read the refund policy prior to accepting an offer of admission by the College.

Protection of student fees is provided by the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislation, the Commonwealth of Australia, and the provisions under the agreement between Bradford College and the University of Adelaide.

Medical costs

The College is hereby authorised to seek medical treatment should such action be deemed necessary by the College or a staff member acting on behalf of the College. The student agrees to indemnify the College for any expense, loss, damage or liability of whatsoever nature occasioned as a result of authorising and arranging such emergency medical treatment.

Deferral, suspension and cancellation of enrolment

Students should refer to the Bradford College website for details of circumstances in which their enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled. All students accepting an offer by the College are taken to have read and understood the information contained in this policy. The policy can be accessed at www.bradford.adelaide.edu.au.

Privacy

Bradford College is bound by the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 and the National Privacy Principles which are extracted from the Act. Privacy laws regulate the way organisations can collect, use, keep and disclose personal information. All personal information the College collects is in accordance with these principles and guidelines. Bradford College may only collect, use and disclose information for which the person has expressly consented (unless otherwise required by law).

Information provided by international students may be made available to the Australian Government and designated authorities, the Fund Manager of the ESOS Assurance Fund and where applicable, the Tuition Assurance Scheme, pursuant to obligations under the ESOS Act 2000, the ESOS Regulations 2001 and the National Code 2007. Student details will also be provided to the University of Adelaide upon acceptance of an offer at Bradford College. For further information please refer to Bradford College's privacy policy at www.bradford.adelaide.edu.au.

School aged dependants

International students who have school aged dependants accompanying them to Australia must ensure that their dependants are enrolled in and attend school. School aged dependants are charged full fees at both government and non-government schools. Further information for students with school aged dependants is available on the Bradford College website at www.bradford.adelaide.edu.au.

Student visa conditions

International students in Australia are required to abide by their student visa conditions. Information about student visa conditions is available on the DIAC website at www.immi.gov.au.

The ESOS framework also sets out the responsibilities of international students on student visas, as well as the Education Provider's responsibilities under the ESOS framework. The ESOS framework is available on the Australian Government's Australian Education International (AEI), website at <http://aei.gov.au/AEI/ESOS/ESOSLegislation/Default.htm>.

Other conditions

The student is required to attend all scheduled classes unless otherwise negotiated with the College or where there is a legitimate reason (e.g. Doctor's certificate).

All lesson materials supplied by the College are copyright and remain the property of the College. The student will at all times strive to achieve the academic goals of their program and agrees to abide by the rules and code of conduct of the College. If there is a serious breach of such rules and the code of conduct, the College reserves the right to cancel the enrolment without refund. The code of conduct is available on the Bradford College website at www.bradford.adelaide.edu.au.

Students may be required to attend organised College excursions and activities, view films and other multimedia presentations as part of a program of study.

The College takes no responsibility for the loss or theft of students' property.
